

Garage and Shop Sequim 26268

This customer in Sequim wanted the design of their building to speak for itself, and it does just that. Working with our PermaBilt® Building representative, our customer customized the building that they have always wanted. This building includes full view roll up doors, one of which is located behind a slider door, that not only add to the amazing look of this building, but also allows natural light into the building. This building is stunning with dark and light accent colors and adds character to this already great property.
